

VACANCY DETAILS

Department: GW Machining	Hours: 37.5 hours per week on a flexible shift working basis in accordance with the needs of the business
Job Title: Machine Shop Operative	Job Ref: GW595
Place of Work: Bridgnorth
JOB DETAILS The Postholder's duties will include detailing machined parts in line with manufacturing instructions, washing & pressure testing parts in line with customer specification and supporting the etching and serialization of parts, as required. Assembling components and packaging goods in line with manufacturing instructions/ customer specification also form part of this role, as does support visual inspection of components, and assemble items required. The successful candidate will have a good understanding of detailing, be hardworking and team player with a high level of attention to detail and the ability to work on their own initiative. A positive attitude towards customer deadlines is needed for thus role, as are knowledge of health and safety legislation as it applies to the role, successful completion of a RoSPA certified manual handling training course (or equivalent qualification) and a current, valid driving license. A counterbalance forklift truck license would be desirable for thus role, along with experience of machined parts and a machining environment.

HAVE YOU GOT THE SKILLS?

We are always looking for people who want to grow and develop their skills. If you're an ambitious individual who wants to work for a world-leading casting foundry and consultancy please fill in the form and upload your CV. If we have a vacancy that matches your skills and experience we'll be in touch.